

LO: To be able to recognise the feature of adventure stories.

Today we will be looking at adventure stories and their features.

What is an adventure story?

How is it different to other types of stories?

Adventure stories are stories that typically involve some sort of quest or journey. There may be a problem that a character needs to fix or solve.

They often include something exciting, extraordinary or even dangerous.

Unusual settings, often natural settings.

Magic or Mystery

Interesting Characters, often
with special traits, powers or backgrounds.

Typical elements of adventure stories include...

Action, Excitement, Danger.

Good vs Bad.

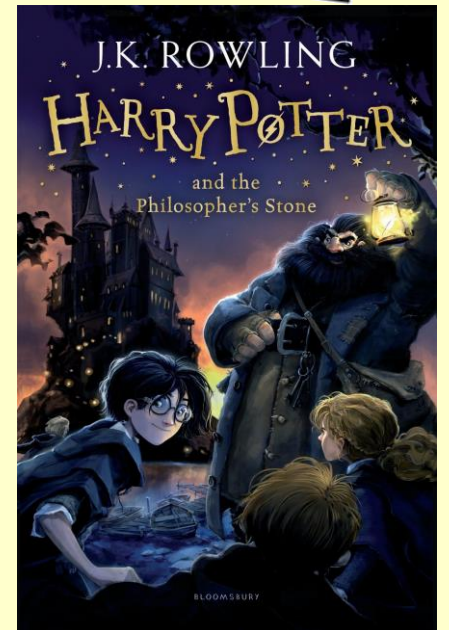

A quest, mission
or journey.
Something to solve/fix.

Can you think of any stories that fit this genre?

Some examples...

Task:

Read the short adventure story examples I have provided. Can you spot any features that have just been discussed?

You have been given a table to fill out. Can you find examples in your story that show it is an adventure story and write them down in the chart.